

Speaker Biography

Scott Butterfield

Scott is a trusted advisor to the leaders of more than 200 credit unions located throughout the United States. A respected veteran of the CU Movement, he understands the challenges and opportunities facing credit unions today. Scott believes that credit unions matter, and that consumers and small businesses need credit unions now more than ever.

More than 30 years of credit union service

Scott delivers more than up-to-date industry best practices. His credit union experience is hands on working in credit union's developing and managing successful loan portfolios, growth strategies, business development and community development plans.

Industry Thought Leader

Scott is a widely published and recognized credit union thought leader. A monthly contributor for CUInsight.com, quarterly contributor to CUNA's Director Newsletter, and other credit union trade publications. Scott is a frequent speaker and presenter in the U.S. and international credit union space.

Scott collaborates and partners with credit union advocates, including; Experian, Northwest Credit Union Association, Cornerstone Credit Union League, FTSI, Inclusiv, and Mark H. Smith, Inc.

Visit www.yourcupartner.org for more information.